Yesterday, Mrs Daniels and I took both the Junior and Senior choir to visit the members of the Maypole club who meet at the Royal British Legion each month.

The children sang beautifully and the ladies were so thrilled and moved by how they performed and how they conducted themselves. As well as singing they danced with great energy and enthusiasm.

Holly (YR) and Isla (Y4) sang beautiful solo songs; singing with confidence and enjoyment.

After the short concert the children sat and chatted with the members and enjoyed refreshments provided by the committee.

Our thanks go to the Maypole Club for their very warm welcome.

Thought for the week:

“Love and kindness are never wasted. They always make a difference”

This week we have been listening to the music of Edward Elgar.

His Enigma variation – number 9 - Adagio movement is just so beautiful. Listen here:
