

I can follow a route on a map and use a simple atlas

I can use symbols to make a simple key and I understand what a key is used for

I can locate places on a map or atlas and can recognise the shape and make up of the UK

I can draw a map of a real or imaginary place

As a Geographer...

I can follow directions including up/down/left/right/north/south/east/west

I can use books, pictures and the internet as sources of information

I can make simple comparisons between features of different places

I can investigate my surroundings

As a Geographer...

I make a simple scale drawing

I know why a key is needed and can recognise symbols on a OS map

I can make a map with features in the correct order

I can locate places on a larger scale map or globe

I can use co-ordinates to locate features on a map

I can follow a route on a map while orienteering

I can use 4/8 compass points to give and follow directions

I can draw a sketch map from a high view point

I can use books, pictures, aerial and satellite photographs and the internet as sources of information

I can identify significant places and environments

I can make comparisons between locations using photos, pictures, maps and temperatures

I collect, record and use evidence about a place

As a Geographer...

I use and recognise OS map symbols

I can draw a sketch map using symbols and a key

I can draw a thematic map based on my data

I can compare maps and ariel photographs

I can use 4 figure co-ordinates to locate features on a map

I can measure straight distance

I can use 8 compass points to give a follow directions

I can use maps to find out specific features of a place

I can use primary and secondary sources of information

I can identify significant places and environments

I can make comparisons between locations using photos, pictures, historical maps and make conclusions

I collect, record and use evidence about a place