This week in Cotswold Class...

Cotswold Class thoroughly enjoyed our recent experience day as part of our English work on the book Float. In the story, the little boy returns home after being caught in a storm and warms up with a cosy blanket and a delicious hot chocolate. We recreated this memorable moment in the school hall with our own blankets and enjoyed drinking hot chocolate topped with marshmallows and cream. It was a wonderful, immersive experience that the children loved.

Back in the classroom, we used this experience to inspire our writing and make it more exciting, detailed and engaging. The children produced some fantastic pieces of work using their senses to describe the warmth, smells and tastes they had enjoyed.

School Self-Portrait Tea Towel

If you would like to order your unique school T-towel, please complete the slip and send payment in the form of bank transfer or cash and post in the PTA box just outside the school office by Monday 1st December.

The tea towels should be delivered to school before the end of term.

KS1 Nativity Dates

Wednesday 10th and Thursday 11th December 5.30pm.

Please return your ticket orders.

Children's Christmas Arts and Crafts Afternoon

Music Showcase

The music ensemble will not perform at this concert but will play at the church service on the last day of term (19th December). Only Mrs Wilde's individual pupils and anyone who has individual lessons outside school will play.

There will be a brass showcase concert next term - we are looking forward to hearing all that our cornet players have learnt.

Thought of the Week

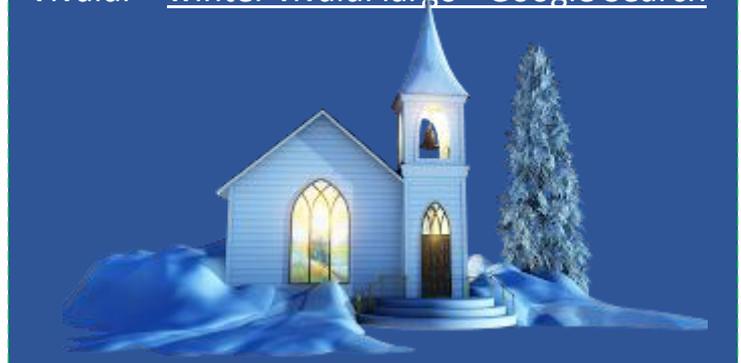

This week in our assemblies we have been thinking about stillness and calm and enjoying silence. Here's a quote from Albert Einstein.

I think 99 times and find nothing. I stop thinking, swim in silence, and the truth comes to me. Albert Einstein

Music of the Week

This week we've been listening to Winter by Vivaldi - winter vivaldi largo - Google Search
