Welcome - this week we've welcomed two more children to our school family. We are so pleased that Elliott and Arthur have joined us. Make sure to give their family a huge Offenham welcome when you see them in the playground. We hope that they will be really happy here with us!

Thank you for all the bottles we have received for the Spring Fayre. You are most generous.

Easter Celebrations in School - 27th March

Church service 9am followed by an Easter hat/bonnet parade and Easter egg hunt at school, for the children. Families are very welcome to join us for the Church service. Why not start on your Easter hat creation over the weekend?

This Week in Cotswold Class ...

Cotswold class have been exploring the world of Paul Klee to create our own abstract masterpieces. We practised our drawing skills by focusing on faces and learned how to create different tints and shades by mixing our own colours. Each painting shows how we have used lines, shapes, and unique tones to bring our ideas to life, just like the famous artist himself!

School run clubs have now finished apart from Guitar Club next week and Maypole which runs until after the Wake.

The PTA Easter Raffle will be drawn next Friday!
Please return your tickets 😊

Thought of the Week

This week, in our assemblies, we have been thinking about wisdom.

Someone once said, "Speak less, say more." This is good advice. We thought about an image of a traffic light to help us wait before we speak, respond and act.

Red – Stop

Amber – Think and get ready to speak or act

Green- Go ahead and act or speak.

Music of the week: This week we've been listening to Songs my mother taught me by Dvorak - Antonín Dvořák - Melody (Songs My Mother Taught Me)
